By registering for DRT Summer Theatre Camp, the student promises to be at all performances and rehearsals during the 2-weeks. If s/he must miss any camp days, due to illness or family emergency, s/he will inform the camp director as soon as possible. Student will remain in the camp area at all times unless accompanied by camp staff, and follow any behavioral agreements laid out by camp administrators. Except in a Camp Director approved emergency, CELL PHONES are not used during the camp day! Possession or use of any illegal substance will result in parent notification and immediate dismissal from the camp, as will violent behavior. Student also agrees to treat the rehearsal/performance space with respect and care. Student and Parent/Guardian agree that DRT, the camp director and staff, both volunteer and paid, along with CityWell Church where the camp is held, will take all responsible precautions to ensure each student's safety and releases them from responsibility for any injuries that might occur during the camp sessions.
